

Originally from the Central West of NSW, Michelle Little has been performing for over 25 years. The artist who is influenced by the likes of Patsy Cline and Reba McEntire has graced stages from the Sydney Opera House to The Bluebird Cafe in Nashville.

She has recorded an EP, 'That's What I Like' (1999) and two studio albums "Hear Me Now" (2008) and "Invincible"(2021). Michelle also released a live album "Michelle Little Sings the Songs of Patsy Cline"(2016) recorded at her tribute show during the Tamworth Country Music Festival. 2023 sees Michelle releasing track 11, "Crazy" from this album to streaming services and radio.

The singing-songwriting school teacher now lives in Sydney's Inner West, where her love of country music – influenced and nurtured by her parents - continues to be at the heart of Michelle's music.

New Single "Crazy" Out Now

Michelle Little

Contact
Ph: 0427 911 082
info@michellelittle.com.au